

Join Our Trip to The Quilt Trail Gathering

A 10-year anniversary celebration of the beginning of the Quilt Trail

May 12—15, 2011
Winchester, Ohio
Red Barn
Convention Center

ONE PERSON CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE!

One woman honoring her mother and her Appalachian heritage created a national phenomenon!

Come with us to the heart of the Ohio Valley to meet Donna Sue Groves and her mother, Nina Maxine, a 5th generation quilter whose stories and handwork inspired the Ohio and National Quilt Barn Trail.

Be a part of this one of a kind gathering “Celebrating a Decade—The Quilt Trail Gathering”
Donna Sue’s early vision was to create an imaginary clothesline of connecting barns decorated with quilt squares across rural America. In 10 short years, her dream has spread to 29 US states and 2 Canadian provinces with over 3,200 colorful quilt squares.

Special arrangements have been made for our group only: Nina Maxine Groves will board our motor coach for a private tour to their home farm to see the original quilt squares & enjoy beautiful countryside along the Quilt Trail.
